

Bruny Island Film Society Program, October 2021 – September 2022

Annual Subscription ($30 per person),
3-monthly ($10) Guests welcome as potential members

Sat 16 Oct 2021	Neruda.(2016) An exuberant visual poem reflecting the life and politics of the Chilean poet, Neruda is much more than a simple biopic.
Sat. 13 Nov 2021	To Be announced
Sat. 4 Dec 2021	Miracle on 34th Street (1947) When a nice old man who claims to be Santa Claus is institutionalized as insane, a young lawyer decides to defend him by arguing in court that he is the real thing. ... A Christmas season evergreen.
Sat. 8 Jan 2022	Keeping Mum (2005) ... a genial and genuinely funny British black comedy. Kristin Scott Thomas and Maggie Smith deliver wonderful performances as bored housewife and homicidal housekeeper respectively, while Rowan Atkinson gives his most subtle turn in years as a vicar who saves his passion for the Sunday sermon. There's also the sight of Patrick Swayze in a tight red thong, but don't let that put you off.
Sat. 22 Jan 2022	Nomadland. (2020) ... a Springsteen song in movie form, a beautifully rendered tale of what it means to be disenfranchised in America. Life on the road has never been so tenderly captured, politically alive and profoundly moving.
Sat. 12 Feb. 2022	Second Bruny Island 'Home Grown' Short Film Festival A selection short films from locals and visitors to our fair isle. A gala event (red carpet, prizes, awards etc.....)
Sat. 26 Feb. 2022	To Be announced
Sat. 12 Mar. 2022	To Be announced

Sat. 3 Apr 2022	To Be announced
Sat. 21 May 2022	Cold War. (2018) ... a work of unspeakable beauty, one that doesn't leave you when the film ends, and its deceptively simple focus on a love story can't mask its cinematic achievement.
Sat. 11 June 2022	To Be announced
Sat. 16 July 2022	To Be announced
Sat. 13 August 2022	To Be announced
Sat. 17 Sept 2022	Honeyland. (2019) A documentary about a Macedonian beekeeper doesn't sound like one of the best films of the year, does it? But few movies capture the great wheel of nature turning with as much beauty and empathy as Honeyland, and fewer still show how easily the wheel can slip its track and come crashing to pieces.

NOTE:

- Screenings may change due to unforeseen circumstances – please check in the Bruny News or on our website (below)
- Ratings can be checked at www.imdb.com
- For all enquires, contact Tony Korab, Tel:0472738956, email hanatony@yahoo.com, website: <http://www.brunyislandarts.com.au/film-society-calendar>
- Acknowledgements: Films: National Film and Sound Archive, Roadshow Films, Potential Films, Amalgamated Entertainment, Madman Films, Umbrella Entertainment Support: Hobart Film Society, Bruny Island Arts Inc., Tas Regional Arts, Kingborough Council, Bruny Island Community Association, Proudly Sponsored by Laureen Wood, First National, Hobart and Kingston